MUCH HARD FIGHTING YET BEFORE EITHER SIDE WINS

Reports from Paris Earlier in Week That Allies Were About to Succeed in Northern France, Were Premature—No Decision Reached Yet in Battle That Has Been in Progress Three Weeks—Extremely Violent Fighting Continues on Western Wing.

ACTION EXTENDING MORE AND MORE NORTHWARD

Battle Which Promises to be Greatest of Eastern Campaign, Has Commenced Near Cracow, Where an Austro-German Army Estimated at 800,000, is Endeavoring to Check Russian Advance—German Plan of Invading Russia Seems a Failure.

THREE WEEKS AND NO DECISION.

London, Oct. 2.—The battle of the Aisne, as it still is called, although the armies contending in it have spread far beyond that river, has been in progress just three weeks and no decision has been reached. Reports from Paris earlier in the week that the allies 'operations were about to succeed were premature. From all appearances there must be more hard fighting before either side gives way.

The heaviest blows are being given and taken in the western area, where, according to today's French official communications, an extremely violent battle continues, especially in the Roye district, where the Germans have conserved considerable force. The communication added that the action was extending more and more northward and that the fighting front now extended to the district south of Arrps.

This apparently was a modest account of the northward advance of the French, for private telegrams received in London tonight announced that the French actually had reached Arras. Stubborn resistance is being offered by the Germans in the vicinity of Roye, where earlier in the battle they occupied heights which they were forced to abandon.

Along the front from the Oise to the Meuse rivers, according to the French report, only partial operations have been attempted by either side. Frontal attacks by the allies, as a matter of fact, have been discontinued, while the flanks are fighting for ascendancy.

On the allies' right the Germans have made another attempt to cross the Meuse at St. Mihiel, where they got across last week. The German attack to regain this ground, which they had abandoned when threatened on their flank by troops from Toul, was made yesterday when they tried to throw a bridge across the river. The pontoon, however, according to the French report, was destroyed during the night.

NOT TAKING ANTWERP RAPIDLY.

The Germans, who are supposed to have had the assistance of heavy Austrian guns, apparently have failed in their first attempt to pierce the outer line of forts at Antwerp. Official reports and statements by correspondents say that none of the Belgian forts has been damaged severely and that the German infantry attacks were repulsed with heavy losses to the attackers.

The opinion prevails here that the Germans at present do not intend to make a serious attempt to besiege Antwerp and that the attack they have made is to keep the Belgians within the fortress and to stop sorties, which were disconcerting to the Germans occupying the rest of the country.

Again reports are in circulation that the Germans are making preparations to evacuate Belgium, or at any rate that portion as far east as Brussels. It is said the force in Brussels is packing up, but such statements have been made so often that not much reliance is placed in them.

GREAT BATTLE IN EAST BEGINS.

The battle which promises to be the greatest and most important of the eastern campaign has commenced near Cracow, Galacia, where an Austro-German army, estimated to number 800,000 men, is endeavoring to check the Russian advance. This combined Austro-German army has occupied a line just inside the Russian Poland frontier from Cracow through Czenstochowa to Kalish and has had plenty of time to prepare strong defensive positions. Both sides are bringing up reinforcements. The Germans are hurrying theirs from Breslau and Bavaria. Bohemian and Moravian railways are congested with German troops and war material.

The German plan of an invasion of Russia from East Prussia has failed, according to Russian official reports, wwhich declare the Germans got as far as the western bank of the Niemen river, but found strong Russian forces in the hills on the eastern bank. Being in low and marshy ground, the Germans, according to the Russian viewpint, were at a disadvantage and could not advance.

A fight is in progress at Miriampol, near the northeastern Prussian frontier, while farther south in the Suwalki district, the Russians claim to have turned the Germans' retreat into disorderly flight.

More heavy fighting is taking place at Augustowo, 140 miles northeast of Warsaw, in the province of Suwalki, where the Germans have received reinforcements and are taking the offensive. At Grajewo, 25 miles southwest of Augustowo, the Russians again have entered German territory, and at Mlawa they claim victory over the Germans.

ARTILLERY DUEL AT RHEIMS.

Shell Wrecks Half American Consul's Residence Under Flag.

London, Oct. 2.—A dispatch from Rheims to the Exchange Telegraph Co., dated Wednesday, says:

"Rheims was the scene of a fierce artillery duel this morning. During the bombardment, the American consul William ardel, had a narrow escape. A shell wrecked half of his residence over which the Stars and Stripes were flying."

A dispatch from Paris a few days ago said that the American consul, William Bardel, his wife, daughter and son, were the only Americans left in Rheims Major Spencer Cosby, the military attache of Paris, visited Bardel recently to supply him with funds. Cosby reported that while nearly every house in the quarter in which Bardel lived had been destroyed by shells, Bardel's house, oddly enough, had been left intact. Cosby said that Bardel and his family spent most of their time during the bombardment of the past fortnight in a wine cellar 100 feet under ground.

SUMMARY FROM BERLIN.

Germans Still Hammering Away—Battle still Undecided.

Berlin, Oct. 2, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I.—According to announcement made here today, the great battle in France is still undecided. The Germans are described as hammering the French positions at numerous points by their heavy artillery.

The attempts of the allies to break through the German lines are said to have been repulsed. The heaviest losses have been in the Argonne region. The Germans are asserted to be making steady progress.

In the fighting before Antwerp the German artillery is reported as having silenced two of the Belgian forts. German troops are said to have captured 30 aeroplanes sent from France to Belgium.

In the eastern arena of the war, the Russian offensive movement from the Niemen river agianst the Germans in the province of Suwalki is declared to have failed. It is officially reported that the Russian fortress at Ossowet, in Russian Poland, was bombarded by the Germans until September 25.

The fighting in France, the siege of Antwerp and the offensive operations under General Von Hindenberg, all going on at the same time, are taken in Berlin to indicate that the German army is not lacking in men.

Machine Guns on Church Towers.

London, Oct. 2.—An official statement, received from Berlin by wireless, says:

"It is reported that the Belgians already have placed machine guns on the church towers of Antwerp. The siege of that city is making progress.

"The Germans have occupied Malines and strict orders have been given not to bombard the town, so that the cathedral may be spared."

DAY'S WAR NEWS AT A GLANCE

The great battle of the Aisne, which has been in progress three weeks, has not been decided.

The fiercest fighting is taking place in the western area, where an extremely violent battle continues, especially in the Roye district, in which the Germans have conserved considerable. The action appears to be extending more and more northward.

On the left wing of the allies, one of the French detachments which came out of Arras, department of Pas de Calais, has fallen back a little toward the east and north of that city, according to a French official announcement.

The allies have made progress in front of Albert, north of the Somme, according to the latest official announcement in Paris. Between Roye and Las Signy the Germans have directed violent attacks against the allied line, but these attacks, says the French war office, have broken against the French and British resistance.

Along the rest of the front quiet is said to prevail. It is officially announced in Paris that no enemy remains on the left bank of the Meuse, in the neighborhood of St. Mihiel, 20 miles southeast of Verdun.

The first attempts of the Germans to pierce the outer line of forts at Antwerp appear to have failed. None of the Belgian forts have been severely damaged, it is stated in a French official report, and the German infantry attacks have been repulsed with heavy losses to the invading forces. On the other hand, an official statement issued in Berlin says the siege of Antwerp is making progress.

THRILL IN THE AIR ALONG EXTENDED ALLIED LINES

French and British Troops Feel They Have Accomplished Their Main Objective, Preventing Germans Breaking Through Human Barrier Between Them and Paris. Fury of German Onslaught Unabated.

On the Battle Front, via Paris, Oct. 2.—A thrill was in the air all along the extended allied lines today. The French and British troops, who for more than a fortnight have been in the closest contact with the Germans, felt they had accomplished their hard task of preventing the Germans from breaking through the human barrier erected between them and Paris, their main objective, and this meant eventual victory for the allies.

The lines of trenches make the battle front appear like deeply scarred fields. The allies, who quickly learned the lesson of burrowing, face the Germans within a quarter of a mile at some places. Their field entrenchments offer admirable shelter from the German artillery, which consequently reduces their casualties and permits the allies to await in comparative safety the German attacks, which must be made across the open and often at terrible cost.

The fury of the German onslaught was unabated today, and especially on the western wing, and their every effort typefies courage.

The scene of the most violent attacks changes day by day. The Germans finding it impossible to penetrate the allied lines in the vicinity of Rheims and Soissons, quickly transported many of their divisions farther northwest and today hurled them against Roye. Again they failed, although tonight they had not ceased their efforts to batter down the resistance.

The allies' great turning movement today and their western wing extended toward Arras. Reports from the other end of the line on the frontier show the progress of the allies to be slow but sure. Hundreds of German prisoners fell into the hands of the allies at every point and it was remarked that the majority were Bavarians, who seem to have been prominent in the front of the German attack.

Spies are so numerous along the front that orders have been issued stating that any German in civilian dress encountered will be considered a spy and those furnishing him with clothes will be regarded as accomplices. Germans who do not surrender on the first summons will be executed.

The order says that any group of more than three armed Germans found behind the allies' lines will be considered as ghouls and shot, while every person found committing robbery on the battlefields, whether civilian or soldier, will be court martialed.

"HAS FALLEN BACK A LITTLE."

French Official Statement of the Situation at the Front.

Paris, Oct. 2.—The following official communication was issued tonight:

"First—On our left wing one of our detachments which came out of Arras (a fortified town and capital of the department Pas de Calais) has fallen back a little toward the east and north of that city.

"North of the Somme we have made progress in front of Albert. Between Roye and Lassigny the enemy has directed violent attacks which have broken against our resistance.

"Second—Quiet prevails along the rest of the front. It is reported that in the neighborhood of St. Mihiel, which is 20 miles southeast of Verdun, there remains no enemy on the left bank of the Meuse."

NORFLK SOUTHERN NOT HURT MUCH BY STRIKE

Newbern Shops Idle, But Work is Being Done in Richmond.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., Oct. 2.—One hundred or more men employed in the local shops of the Norfolk Southern Railway who went on strike yesterday morning after several members of the union had been dismissed for refusing to work on a holiday without extra pay, are still holding out and the shops are idle. Superintendent Lewis, of this division, stated tonight that the company did not know what the men intended doing in the matter.

He stated that the strike was causing the mbut little inconvenience, and that they had a contract with a concern in Richmond, Va., to do all of their machinery work and that an indfinite tie-up of the local shops would not greatly inconvenience the company. Just what the members of the union who are out on strike intend doing is a matter os speculation. Several of the union heads are expected in the city at any time, and until they arrive no definite action will be taken.

UNION OIL TANKER SUNK BY GERMAN CRUISER LEIPZIG.

Elsinore's Crew Landed at Calapagos Island, Off Central America.

San Francisco, Oct. 2.—The Union oil tanker Elsinore was sunk by the German cruiser Leipzig off the coast of Central America September 15, and the crew landed on Galapagos Island.

The Elsinore, which is of British registry, though American owned, was in ballast, bound north for Port San Luis, Cal. The news was received here today from Valparaiso in a cable to the Union Oil Co.

This is the second prize reported sunk by the Leipzig within two days. Information came from Callao via New York yesterday that the British freighter Bankfields, carrying $500,000 worth of sugar, had been sunk off the coast of Peru and the crew brought into Callao on the Kosmos freighter Marie.

Three British cruisers, bound westward, touched at Punta Arenas, in the Straits of Magellan, this week.

MOVING TOWARDS PEACE IN MEXICO

Conference of All Factions to be Held Monday.

IS TENTATIVE PLAN

Washington Officials Believe Supreme Effort Will be Made Then to Settle Controversies Between All Factions.

Washington, Oct. 2.—An outline of what the outcome of the conventions at Aguas Calientes and Mexico City probably will be, was received here tonight by Mexican Constitutionalist agents.

According to the dispatches, delegates of General Carranza's faction, now in convention at Mexico City, probably will adjourn tomorrow to meet in joint session October 5th with the Aguas Calientes peace conference attended by representatives of General Vila and General Zapata, as well as the Carranza faction. Officials here expect a supreme effort will be made to settle all controversies between the severa factions.

It was said the convention in Mexico City might decide to continue in session several days, but, if so, in all probability it would adjourn in sufficient time to permit the delegates to be present at the opening of the Aguas Calientes meeting.

In the event an agreement is reached at the Aguas Calientes convention, the plan is to have the leaders of all factions proceed to Mexico City, there to designate a provisional president and arrange for elections and the establishment of a permanent government.

Official announcement today that American troops would not be withdrawn from Vera Cruz before October 11, and that no time had been fixed for the transfer of control of that port to Mexican authorities, was accepted as meaning that General Funston's forces will not be ordered home until the break between Carranza and Villa had been settled and order restored in the republic.

Officials said today, however, that it was very probable several detachments would be withdrawn from Vera Cruz within the next two weeks, leaving a sufficient force to remain as long as circumstances warrant.

The Mexican situation was discussed today by President Wilson and Secretaries Bryan and Daniels.

Maytorena Makes a Move.

Naco, Sonora, Oct. 2.—Governor Maytorena moved his main force to a point within three miles of Naco shortly before noon today and halted, apparently to prepare for an attack on General Benjamin Hill's Carranza army of 1,800 men entrenched within the town. Maytorena deployed skirmishers and cavalry.

MAXTON MAN HURT.

J. G. Baldwin Runs Car Into Ditch at Night.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Maxton, N. C., Oct. 2.—Tonight about 7:40, while returning from a fishing trip at Stewart's pond, J. G. Baldwin, a young business man and farmer of this place, while driving at a pretty rapid rate, had the misfortune to run his car into a deep ditch about one mile east of town. He was knocked unconscious by the fall and was carried to the Maxton Hospital.

At this time, 10:45, he has regained consciousness. Doctors Harris and Croom, who brought him in, think there is no serious damage aside from the shock.

The car suffered a broken windshield and other minor damages.

WHOLE REGIMENT OF GERMANS WIPED OUT

Survivor Tells of Fierce Fighting Near Verdun.

That an African Batallion Checked Attacks of German Imperial Guard is Interence Drawn from Story Told.

Paris, Oct. 2.—That an African battallion checked attacks of the German Imperial Guard in recent fighting near Verdun, is the inference drawn from details received here of the combat in that region.

A survivor of the battle, who has arrived in Paris, today told the following story of the fight:

"The sum was just rising when our outposts came baks on our main force and informed us that the Imperial Guard was coming. Soon after we could see pointed helmets, glistening in the sun, advancing.

"Deceived by our silence the guard came on even to the barbed defenses and commenced cutting them before our trumpets sounded an order for volley firing. The first line of the enemy seemed just to melt away under our fire. The second line appeared to be shaken for an instant, but on they came.

"We could see the officers in the lead waving their swords and encouraging their men to the assault. Anothter volley and the second line thinned out: but a third line came on and crossed the line of wire defenses.

APPEAL TO WILSON FOR FEDERAL AID

Ask That $450,000,000 be Loaned to Cotton Growers.

CONGRESSMEN CONFER

Representatives From South Urge That Congress be Not Adjourned Until South's Financial Situation is Relieved.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Southern congressmen appealed to President Wilson today not to consent to an adjournment of Congress until the financial situation facing coton planters is relieved and asked that $450,000,000 in government funds be raised for loans to planters at three per cent. interest. The President promised to discuss the situation with Secreanry McAdoo and with other congressional leaders.

The delegation asked that money for loans be raised through the sale of $200,000,000 worth of Panama Canal bonds, the issuance of $200,000,00 wort bonds, the issuance of $200,000,00 worth of United States notes and the transfer to the South of $50,000,000 of government money now deposited in national banks. It was proposed that the loans to planters be made for periods of from nine to twelve months at three per cent. interest on cotton at an average price of ten cents a pound.

The delegation contended that under the national bank law banks may be authorized to act as fiscal agents and trustees of the government and under this provisions the government and not the banks would be responsible for the money. The Southerners declared that if $450,000,000 were available the situation would be relieved and a smaller amount would be actually called for.

As a precedent for sending money to the South, the President's callers referred to the deposit of govrnment funds in Dayton after the flood.

Representatives Lever, of South Carolina, and Hardwich, of Georgia, sought Secretary McAdoo's support for the Senate amendment to the bank law to authorize state banks to issue extra currency under the Vreeland section, Mr. McAdoo, however, reiterated his opposition.

Plans for Curtailment.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 2.—Presidents of the local cotton exchange, board of trade, association of commerce and several bankers and cotton dealers, at a conference here today, formulated a plan of action which they hope will give impetus to the plan for the reduction of cotton acreage next year and aiding the cotton planter now.

The idea, as expressed in resolutions, is first from a ways and means committee composed of fifty well known men from every section of the country. This committee will be instructed to organize an executive committee to immediately begin an educational campaign.

New For Cotton Evening Gowns.

New York, Oct.2 .—A movement to aid southern planters in popularizing cotton evening grown was started here today when Miss Florence Guernsey, president of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs, issued an appeal to 100,000 members of the federation to purchase such a gown and wear it at the peace demonstation to be held during the week of October 5.

Miss Guernsey announced she would offer resolutions at the convention of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs, which meets at Binghampton on October 9, and at the New York City Federation, convention, which meets on October 30, urging all women to join in the movement.

RUSSIAN GENERAL STAFF TALKS SOME

Have Continued to Repulse the German Forces.

ENGAGEMENTS FIERCE

Official Statement From Petroprad Reviews the Situation in the Eastern Theatre of War From Russian Viewpoint.

Petrograd, Oct. 2.—The Russian general staff has given out the following official communication:

"The Russian troops have continued to repulse the enemy from the boundaries of the governments of Suwalki and Lomza. The engagement has been very fierce west of Eymno.

"The German troops that were attacking Ossowetz are retreating hastily to the north. Considerable forces of the enemy, of which the bulk arrive from the west, are concentrating in the districts west of the governments of Piontrkok and Kielce.

"The Russian cavalry and vanguard are reconnoitering energetically through all that region, impeding through vigorous attacks the movement of the enemy. The Germans always endeavor to use the highways in Russian territory because the other roads are rough and paralize their artillery trains.

"An attack by the Russian cavalry against the German vanguard in front of Andre wand marching on Kielce was crowned with great success. The German infantry was caught unawares and is retreating in disorder, pursued by the Russian cavalry.

"The bombardment of Ossowetz did damage to only a few private dwellings and a few telephone lines as the garrison was sheltered by numerous concrete walls.

"The offensive by the Russian troops marching through the forests of Augustowo was not covered by the artillery. South of Augustowo a hand to hand engagement took place. It was particularly fierce in the semicircle between the Bialoboseg basin which was crossed by a Russian column and the Augustowo canal near the Borki basin. The issue of this engagement was decided by an attack from Agustowo.

"Northwest of the forst of Agustowo the Russians were compelled to attack the rear guard of the Germans through numerous defiles and in fortified positions, where the Russian infantry received great help from its heavy artillery which caused great losses to the enemy, who were dislodged from the entrenchments and retired under our force.

"The battle is proceeding over an extensive front, the Germans occupying positions near Mariempol and south of Stahutshin.

"In the vicinity of Wresouch the ground is very rough, making it very difficult for the troops to keep their battle lines."

Brilliant Success Gained.

Paris, Oco. 2.— AHavas dispatch from Petroprad gives the following official announcement:

"A division of Russian cavalry has gained a brilliant success against the advance guards of Germans leaving Andrejew government of Kielce, Russian Poland, in the direction of the city of Kielce. The enemy, surprised, threw down their arms and ammunition and fled, while the Russian cavalry cut up a laggard detachment.

"The German operations in Russian territory have failed, their artillery being defenseless on the roads, which are not macadamized. Most of the batteries become mired as soon as they leave the pricipal routes."

MOTOR CARS TO SHARE TAXES WITH GASOLINE

Fifty Cents Per Horse Power on Automobile Sales.

Reduction of Tax on Gasoline 2 to 1 Cent a Gallon is Agreed Upon by Democrats of Senate Finance Committee.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Reduction of the proposed tax on gasoline in the war revenue bill from two cents to one cent a gallen, and imposition of a tax of 50 cents per horsepower on automobile sales, were agreed to today by Democrats of the Senate finance committee. They plan to complete their revision of the House bill by tomorrow night.

The committee will have before it tomorrow a sub-committee recommendation that the proposed tax of $2 a thousand on bank capital and surplus be eliminated and that there be substituted a stamp tax on checks, drafts, certificates of deposit, and other negotiable paper. The tax on checks, drafts, etc., would be two cents and on certificates of deposit, etc., two cents for each $100. From this, it is estimated, the revenue would be about $10,000,000 a year.

It was also agreed to retain the proposed increased tax of 50 cents a barrel on beer in the House bill with the understanding, however, that a further increase of 25 cents might be made should the committee find it necessary to raise more revenue after it has completed consideration of all sections of the bill.

Latter Take Steps to Form State Business Agency for Buying and Selling—Columbus Woman Pardoned.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 2.—Declaring that they have examined the Constitutional amendments pending for adoption in the State election in November and are convinced that their adoption by the people at the polls will make for progress in this State and for advancement in farming and all other worthy interests, the officers and executive committee of the State Farmers' Union here today adopted resolutions urging all to vote for the amendments as submitted.

The resolutions further declare: "We remind the people especially that the taxation amendment does not pledge the people to any plan, but simply sets free our people to work out necessary reforms in taxation while leaving in force the present restriction on rates."

The non-partisan character of the amendments and their submission to the voters is emphasized. The resolutions are signed by Dr. H. Q. Alexander, president; Dr. J. M. Templeton, vice president; E. C. Faires, secretary-treasurer; J. Z. Green, organizer-lecturer; W. C. Crosby, educational secretary; W. R. Gibson, C. C. Wright, W. H. Moore and Clarence Poe.

These resolutions endorsing the amendments were also endorsed unanimously by the 80-odd Farmers' Union county agents here in conference for the formation of a central State agency for buying and selling of farmers in co-operation with the county agencies. As to this matter, tentative plans were adopted for such a State system and this will be submitted to the annual meeting of the State Farmers' Union for adoption in Greenville, the dates for the annual meeting being November 18-19.

Columbus Woman Pardoned.

Effective October 15, Governor Craig grants a pardon for Missie Marlowe, a Columbus county woman serving a 15-years sentence since 1911 for second degree murder. SECOND LARGEST CROP ON RECORD INDICATED

Cotton Condition 73. 5 Per Cent of Normal Sept. 25

Forecast of 15,300,000 Bales Made by Crop Reporting Board of Department of Agriculture—Condition in N. C.

Washington, Oct. 2.—A forecast of 15,300,000 500-pound bales of cotton as the 1914 crop was made today by the Department of Agriculture's crop reporting board in the season's final report which showed a condition on September 25 of 73.5 per cent of normal.

That quantity of cotton makes this year's crop second in point of size ever grown in the United States. The record is 15,693,000 bales grown in 1911. Last year 14,156,000 bales were grown and in 1912 there were 13,703,000 bales.

The September 25 condition indicates a yield of about 200 pounds of lint per acre, which, applied to the estimated area planted, 36,960,000 acres, would produce 15,463,000 bales. An average of 1 per cent of the acreage is abandoned each year. Allowing for that the condition of the crop indicates a total production of 15,300,000 bales.

Comparisons of conditions by States follow:

DUN'S TRADE REVIEW.

Significant Growth of Confidence Noted the Past Week.

New York, Oct. 2.—Dun's Review tomorrow will say:

"The abnormal business conditions created by the war continue and caution and retrenchment still halt enterprise, yet there is a significant growth of confidence. Several factors contribute to this situation.

"Undoubtedly the improvement in the financial markets is slow, but it is steady, and the measures taken to permit limited dealings in securities under stringent regulations, make at least the partial opening of the London and New York exchanges a nearer possibility. Even the suggestion of this event creates a better sentiment, so much does all corporate enterprise depend upon open security markets.

"Another factor is the active export movement of grain, which has a two-fold effect, as it aids greatly in restoring more normal conditions in international exchanges and contributes mightily to the prospects of the West by ensuring high prices for the large crops that have been raised in that section.

"Fa[illegible] for the week in the United States were 415 against 254 last year, and in Canada 60 against 53 last year.

"Bank exchanges were $2,151,488,000 a decrease of 32.3 per cent from a year ago."

IREDELL MEARES SPEAKS FOR PUBLIC MORALITY AND HONOR OF THE LAW

Criticises Alliance Between the Tidewater Power Co., and the Recorder—Denounces use of Money

I have no personal monetary interest in the Wilmington Carolina Beach Railway Co., I own no stock in the Company. My relations to it have been entirely professional. This has been confined to specific legal work. I am not its general legal adviser.

I do not speak in this article with the knowledge of any of its officers, nor in its behalf, but as a citizen and a lawyer, and for the public weal.

I have spoken and written often in protest to the degradation of our political life by the corrupt use of money in primary elections. We all know it has been nothing short of a crime in the political life of this City. By it republics have fallen and by it communities have been destroyed.

It is a fact, which has been openly charged and not denied, that the Tide Water Power Company has employed the services of Mr. Jno. J. Furlong, the Recorder of the Criminal Court of this County, who is clothed with the powers heretofore vested in the Superior Court Judge, to conduct its campaign of opposition in this franchise election; and that he has entered actively upon the work, employing in turn "workers" to work, employing in the voters to influence this election. These men are paid by the Tide Water Power Co., or those representing it. Everybody knows what the term "worker" means.

Mr. Furlong obtains from the County Commissioners a leave of absence for two weeks. Perhaps, he is entitled to this, but he is now devoting actively much of his time to managing and directing for the Tide Water Power Company, this campaign.

So long has the present Recorder acted as a local political leader, conducting campaigns through employed ward healers, and so long has this practice been tolerated, he may be pardoned, in a measure, for not understanding how he degrades the judiciary when he temporarily steps off the bench to engage, whether for compensation or not, in this or any character of campaign. He occupies the hightest judicial office in the County. He would have exclusive jurisdiction for sixty days, after an offense committed, before the Superior Court would have concurrent jurisdiction, to pass upon all indictments for violating the election laws; and here you have him off the bench, at the head of the Tide Water Power Company's group of employed "Workers" actively conducting its campaign. Is any comment necessary?

But to me it is inconceivable that the officers and directors of the Tide Water Power Comapny, who stand in this community for its better social life, business leadership and church activities, if willing to spend the Company's funds in this manner, would lend themselves, passively or actively, to the retention in their service of the highest judicial officer of the County! It is an unholy alliance between corporate monopoly, in seeking to perpetuate itself, with the County judiciary, which becomes pliant to its will, and it is a disgrace to both; but to the community—a Peril!

Is it not time that the manhood of this City protests and demands that this use of money, this undoing of the County judicial system, at the behest of corporation exigency, be condemned and repudiated? It is a violation of law to bet on elections, to offer money to influence the action of the voter and the result of an election. Candidates are limited to the sum they may spend and must make statements of their expenditures after election. These laws and penalties provided are applicable, in my opinion, to this election; but for sixty days the Recorder has the "exclusive" jurisdiction of violations thereof, and, if animated by partisan zeal, he could extend the, "exclusive privilege" to the workers under his direction of the Tide Water Power Company to do what they might please in violation of the election laws and his action would be final. I do not say that he will. I do not say that the position of Recorder and the position of campaign manager are utterly irreconcilable by any standard of "legal ethics." The Recorder of this County, in respect for the office he holds, has no right to place himself in the position he now stands in regard to this election. The Tide Water Power Company, its officers and directors, have no right to bring a judicial officer into such relation to their company. Are we drifting into the Dead Sea of Moral Lethargy, wherein ethical standards are submerged to permit the floatage of selfish interests?

What say you, gentlemen of the Good Order League, to this condition? Are your activities limited to warfare only on blind-tigers and fallen women?

What say the Christian ministers of this City? Did ever subject call more strongly to you to speak for public righteusness.

What say you, men of business, professions, lawyers, doctors, mechanics and laboring men, to this "triple alliance" of the County judiciary, the Public Service Corporation and the Almighty Dollar? Can you not assemble in mass meeting, protest and repudiate such practices?

For what do we pay the Mayor, the Sheriff, Councilmen, Commissioners, prosecuting lawyers and public officials, if the leprosy of this state of affairs passes, on dress parade, their comprehension and official activities?

But upon you, First and Foremost, as officers and directors of the Tide Water Power Company—Messrs. Hugh MacRae, A. B. Skelding, Harry Woolcott, G. Herbert Smith, Walker Taylor, M. J. Corbett, Burke H. Bridgers, C. W. Worth, H. C. McQueen, Oscar Pearsall, W. B. Cooper, Eduard Ahrens, J. G. L. Gieschen, Jurgen Haar, M. F. H. Gouverneur and J. Victor Grainger—rests the responsibility of this unholy and unusual alliance between your corporation and the highest judicial officer of this County. On you rests the employment of so-called "workers," which, if report be true, are paid prices from $25.00 to $300.00 or more per man, to influence this election. Every intelligent citizen knows that this free use of money, by corporation or individual, tends to corrupt and debauch the electorate. Do you, as Directors of this corporation, endorse what you would not personally approve—this method by your corporation, in its own selfish interest, to carry this election and to defeat the proposed grant to another company? If not, say not, and let it be known to the public that your names and influence, in fact as in theory, shall stand for public morality and an untrameled election. It is to be hoped that you will endeavor to bring the spirit of the "New Freedom" into your community's life rather than to let it remain an abstract phrase hurled nation-wide for political jingoism.

Small matter comparatively, Mr. Elector, perhaps, whether you vote for or against the franchise. It is a maxim "Many men—many minds." We may differ about this economic question. But it is of far reaching concern, involving the moral welfare of this community, that this money-mad debauchery in election methods be stopped. Can we not as a civilized community discuss and decide economic questions without attempting to corrupt the electorate by the unrestrained influence of money? Disease, if unchecked, spreads from the hovel to the castle—from the slums to the parlor—from the election booth to the business counter. Moral epidemics originate and take the like course, if not repressed.

Oh, the pity of it all Such methods in one election can do more to lower ethical standards than all the efforts of the preachers can lift back agin, even to the same level, in twelve months.

I speak for Public morality. I speak for the Honor of the Law.

TO TAKE OFF SEVERAL N.C. PASSENGER TRAINS

Southern Applies to Corporation Commisson

General Manager Coapman Appears and Asks to be Allowed to Discontinue Trains Until Business Conditions Improve.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 2.—Vice President and General Manager E. H. Coapman, of the Southern Railway Co., appeared before the Corporation Commission today asking permission to take off a number of passenger trains on various North Carolina lines on account of falling off in the passenger business to the amount of about $90,000 per month and in the freight business to about $230,000 per month on account, the Southern alleges, of the European war conditions, the request for temporary suspension of the trains involved with pledge to restore them as soon as conditions become normal.

Discontinuance is asked for second sections of trains Nos. 37 and 38 on the main line; trains 15 and 16 on the Danville division, and Nos. 145 and 146 on the Durham and Raleigh division, this being the Raleigh-Durham section of the Keysville, Va., train; one of the four trains daily between Greensboro and Goldsboro, suggesting that this be 108 and 131, leaving Raleigh respectively at 10:30 eastbound and 7 P. M. westbound; Nos. 13 and 14 on the Asheville-Charlotte division and 45 and 46 between Greensboro and Charlotte.

The commission has taken the application under advisement and will act on the application later. No action is necessary as to freight trains, as these are adjusted automatically to take care of the volume of business.

—On all the hotel desks in the city for the last two days have been long petitions protesting against the raise in the price of mileage books which the Pennsylvania and several other of the Eastern railroads have asked the Interstate Commerce Commission to make. These have been signed by practically every commercial traveler in Wilmington.

—Chas. Riley, a colored convict serving a four months' sentence, made his escape from the Seagate camp yesterday afternoon. Carrie Simmons, who was recently sentenced to a year on the county farm for violations of the prohibition law, escaped Thursday afternoon.

Concert Sunday Evening.

HE HOPES PROVIDENCE WILL PREVENT PASSAGE

Smith, of Michigan, Attacks Clayton Trust Bill

Efforts of Democratic Leaders to Procure Agreement for Vote Monday Frustrated by Michigan Senator's Objection.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Efforts of Democratic leaders in the Senate today to procure an agreement for a vote on the Clayton anti-trust bill conference report Monday were frustrated when Senator Smith, of Michigan, objected, expressing the hope that "Providence will interfere to prevent enactment of such a bad bill into law."

Following Senator Culberson's request for an agreement, Senator McCumber made an ineffectual effort to have further consideration postponed until next December. Administration leaders, notwithstanding their failure today, predicted that the vote on the conference report would be reached by Monday night.

In debate on the measure, Senator Bristow, of Kansas, charged the President with "abjectly surrendering to the Wall Street interests."

Senators Norris and Clapp also attacked the conference report, which, they declared, "drew the teeth of the bill."

When Senator Clapp asserted the press of international affairs had prevented the President from watching the anti-trust programme carefully, Senator Bristow interrupted:

"I believe," he said, "that the President knows exactly what this conference report does, and that he is supporting it because it does what it does. I am convinced that the President has surrendered his administration to the most sinister influences in the republic. There has been no administration since the beginning of this government which has so abjectly surrendered to the Wall Street interests as this has done."

ARTICLE NO. 17.

NORTHERN CAPITAL

Let us suppose for a moment that the Carolina Beach interests could realize their hope of securing "Northern capital." Would this Northern capital be better for Wilmington than the Northern capital the Tide Water Power Company is securing? Would it do better work or any more work? Would it do more for the progress of the city?

Is it logical to start out to secure Northern capital by antagonizing and planning to destroy the Northern capital already invested in the community; or by cutting off the chances of securing Northern capital through channels which have already been successfully employed? Is there any advantage in stopping one company from bringing capital to the city, because another company wants to experiment and see if they can bring it for the same purpose?

To vote a new franchise with the intention of starting warfare on a corporation which Northern capital has supported, and is willing to continue to support, would be swapping horses in the middle of a stream.

Would the new "horse" be more desirable? It is advisable to consider the width and depth of the "stream," and the swiftness of the current.

The industries of Wilminton are for the moment almost brought to a standstill. No one can tell how much longer this condition will continue. Work is getting scarce. Men are beginning to lose their jobs. Suffering is already near at hand. If the War continues, the distress is likely to become acute. What are the prospects for the saw mills, the compresses, the fertilizer companies, the wholesale merchants? What are the chances for the farmers to get cash for their cotton? Where is the money to come from for refreshing the channels of trade?

The brightest outlook comes from the fact that the Atlantic Coast Line Company will continue to pay salaries to a large number of men residing in Wilmington. Other firms and companies through payment of salaries will also help the situation. These salaries will prove a great benefit in a number of directions.

This is not a time for being too pessimistic or too optimistic; every man owes it to himself to stop and think and try to determine what the outcome is going to be.

The effects of the Civil War have lasted for fifty years. The effect of the present far greater War can not at this time be forecasted. It is safe to assume that every bit of money which can be brought here for investment should be welcome; and that this is not a good time to introduce strife into the community.

The Company has every reason to believe that its bonds will sell, provided its credit is not destroyed by the granting of a competitive franchise. This would simply mean the threat of commercial warfare. It would, in all probability, frighten capitalists, who, at a time like this, seek only the most conservative investments.

It will be clear, even to those least experienced in financial matters, that a vote approving the proposed franchise, is a vote which diminishes the chances of bringing capital into this community.

No one can show that it would be better to let Mr. Chas. Hall Davis try to bring in "Northern capital," than to let the Tide Water Power Company bring it in.

It would take ten years for any new company to reach the position which the Tidewater Power Company has reached, even if there were no competition. These are matters worthy of every man's serious consideration. It is not a time to act hastily, nor is it a time to be guided by momentary prejudice. TIDE WATER POWER COMPANY.

FIRST BASKETBALL GAMES

Cardinals Wallop Giants in Initial Contest at Boys' Brigade—Braves Win From Naps.

Before a crowd which taxed every available inch of space from where the games could be witnessed, the basket ball season at the Boys' Brigade was formally inaugurated last night and some of the best sport ever seen in the early stages of the season was pulled off. The games began at 8:30 promptly as scheduled with the Giants and the Cardinals the contenders.

Every player was on edge waiting for the first toss of the ball and immediately upon the first toss every player got into action with a vim and from start to finish the game was hotly and stubbornly contested. The Giants presented the same line up as that of last season so that their play was identical with that of other seasons, fast, rough but good and exciting to look at.

The Cardinals have a heavier team this season than last and were therefore not outclassed in anything the Giants put up and it was a game between big fast men and kept the spectators on edge until the end. The goal shooting of C. W. Davis for the Giants was a feature, he securing eight, scoring 16 points for his team while the goal shooting of "Happy" Register was of the sensational variety for the Cardinals.

The Giants had 20 fouls called against them while the Cardinals had eight called against them. The guard work of Gallagher for the Giants was good while that of Irving of the Cardinals called for much favorable comment. The first half ended with the Cardinals ahead by one point the score being 11 to 10.

When the second half opened it looked for a time as though the Giants would have a run away race as Davis scored several goals before the Cardinals could get started but when they did start it was all off as they scored nine field goals to the Giants eight and one foul goal against one for the Giants, giving them a total of 19 points against 16 which made the final score: Cardinals 31; Giants 27.

The second game opened with Braves pitted against the Naps and this was one of the fastest games seen at the Brigade in many a day. Both teams are light and very fast, depending upon their speed and team work instead of strength to carry them through and in this game the spectators were treated to some classy sport indeed. The Naps were fast but it seemed that the Braves were just a shade the faster and this was what probably gave them the victory by the small margin of one point.

To select any player as a particular star in this game would be rather difficult as every man did his part and did it well. However Borneman played his usual brilliant game, especially in the second half. In this half he scored four goals from field and in the first half three which gave his team 14 of their 25 points and many of his shots were of the long sensational variety which for beauty cannot be beaten. His opponent Gerdes secured three field goals.

The playing of M. Register, and Palmgren at forward for the Braves was of the gilt edge order while the guard work of Snakenburg for this team and of Montgomery and King for the Naps was fast and hard to get around, their opponents securing but six goals against them. The work of Snakenburg was largely responsible for the failure of the Nap forwards to secure enough goals to win as he played fast as lightning at all stages of the game, seemingly being everything at once. This player will bear watching in the future as he is bound to develop into a real star.

The final score was: Braves 26; Naps 25.

Tabulated score—Giants: field goal, 13; foul goals, 1; Cardinals: field goals, 13; foul goals, 4; Braves: field goals, 11; foul goals, 2. Naps: field goals, 11; foul goals, 3. Goals awarded by referee, to Braves 2; Cardinals 1.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months.

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1914.

Corn in the crib is more dependable than cotton in the warehouse.

Europe is having all the war and we are having all the foolishness.

A political party which fathers some of the proposed legislation to control instead of remedy the cotton situation would soon be out of a situation itself.

People who say Colonel Roosevelt is not a candidate for the Presidency are liars and those who say he is a candidate are liars. Those who predict that he will be a candidate are prophets without honor.

Even Harry Thaw's escapades would look better on the front page than the news features which overshadow everything else. Meanwhile, Harry has managed to keep from being sent back to the bug house.

The Mexicans are making trouble for Senor Calderon by proposing to make him President. If he consents to serve, apt as not some disgruntled hero will insist on his abdication in favor of some other unfortunate.

The opportunities of the young men of the South are greater than ever. One of their biggest opportunities is to keep out of the one crop hole in which their dads are floundering without making any well directed effort to get out without calling on Uncle Sam to throw them the calf rope.

In his speech in Philadelphia on Tuesday night Col. Roosevelt declared: "We shall break the Solid South." He fixed the date two years from now, when the Presidential election takes place. We still have an idea, however, that cotton is about the only thing that is likely to break the Solid South.

Men who change their politics for commercial reasons have no political convictions that will make them strong supporters of their new alliance. They generally hold on to all their loose change, and their allegiance is not to be relied upon for the reason that it has a mere financial basis and not one of principle.

Now in some towns the women would soon put an end to the "wear cotton" movement, but a Greensboro girl knows that her beauty will be supreme, regardless of fabrics. She would as soon wear cotton as anything else. Therefore does the movement prosper here.—Greensboro News.

Why should the New South beg the Federal government to help it? The Old South never had to ask the government to save it from itself. We must remember, however, that the Old South made its own bread and meat. It was a land of plenty. It was a land without a calamity howl. It was never a dependent country. Your Old South was self-reliant and independent to beat the band. Why?

Says the Raleigh Times: "All signs point to a successful fair this year, despite the war in Europe. North Carolinians will not be deterred by as big a thing as a European war." The war might hold us a while but not for very long. We ought to have a big State fair, and every day during the fair it should be featured with the necessity for diversified agriculture in North Carolina. Fairs are supposed to make us sit up and take notice of our opportunities and achievements. Do we make them do that?

Russia has just issued her "orange book" explaining her reason for being engaged in the war of the nations. They have all issued "white books", "blue books," etc., all of which we have filed away as so many apologies for having an excuse to go to war. They try to put the blame on each other, but, after all, the responsibility for the enmity of nations lies on the nation or nations which couldn't stand for each other to get about all the world's trade and gobble up every piece of loose territory that was to be had by taking it by force or working into it by means of what they call diplomacy.

BUMPER COTTON CROP EXPECTED.

The September cotton report of the New York Journal of Commerce shows that the condition of the crop on an average date of September 23, was 75.5 per cent compared with 77.6 per cent in August, or a deterioration of 2.1 points. That is said to be the smallest September deterioration in ten years, with the exception of 1911, when the September decline in condition was 1.8 points. A year ago at this time the crop condition as a whole was 67.1, so that just at this time the crop condition is exceptionally good.

North Carolina's September condition was 78.3 compared with 74.3 last year, and with the exception of a condition of 81 in Oklahoma, 80.4 in Florida, and 79.4 in Georgia, the North Carolina condition is better than that in the 12 cotton growing states.

With the cotton crop all over the South making such a remarkably fine showing at this time, The Journal of Commerce states that "with an acreage of 36,960,000, the prospects for another large crop, such as in 1911, are probable." In spite of the low price of cotton and the lack of incentive to sell, picking has progressed favorably, the crop being 33 per cent gathered, as against 30 per cent gathered this time last year.

In 1911 there was a bumper crop of 16,109,000 bales from an acreage of 36,681,000. This year the acreage is 36,960,000, somewhat larger than then. The largest acreage ever planted was in 1913, when it was 37,458,000.

Statistics show that crops of from 11,000,000 to 12,000,000 bales have always brought more money than a 16,000,000 bale crop.

SEIZING AMERICAN CARGOES.

Despite those conferences between the American and British authorities at Washington, the seizure of American commerce on the high seas by the warships of Great Britain, France or Japan is going to prove quite irritating. Great Britain has served notice that she will seize certain cargoes for neutral nations if there is suspicion that they are intended for Germany and Austria. This she will do, even though they be under the American flag, in American bottoms.

How is it to be known that either neutral or American ships contain contraband unless the allied powers insist upon searching ships at sea? The right to search probably will be insisted upon, and it is liable to bring on some very disagreeable incidents.

Great Britain proposes to seize wheat and copper bound for the Netherlands when it is believed such shipments are to be sent from those countries to Germany. She already has seized copper shipments on suspicion that they were for the Krupp Gun Works for the manufacture of torpedoes. Possibly such shipments were not so intended, but what class of commerce is safe when it is subject to seizure on suspicion with no proof awaited at any time? Commerce cannot revive very rapidly under such conditions.

THE RALEIGH TIMES.

The Raleigh Times has just installed a new high speed Potter rotary web press, and at the same time has greatly enlarged its mechanical plant and newspaper equipment. The press has a capacity of 18,000 complete eight-page papers per hour, or 9,000 sixteen-page papers per hour. The machine prints two colors at the same time and for the first time our esteemed Raleigh contemporary came to us on Wednesday with its front page decorated from one side to the other with a large title line in red ink.

This means that Raleigh's excellent afternoon paper has spread itself. It has better equipped itself for newspaper making, and because of its increased facilities and enlarged mechanical outfit, more building space has been taken in to accommodate the greater Times establishment.

The Times has lived to see itself become a great North Carolina paper. It has won its way on merit, and we can say for that valued exchange that it is one of the broadest and most progressive newspapers in North Carolina. The success of The Times is a real achievement and it is gratifying that it has succeeded because it has deserved to do so.

BANKS DESERVE IT.

A Washington special to the New York Journal of Commerce of Thursday announced that Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has recalled from various banks throughout the country which are maintaining excessive reserves, $3,000,000 of government deposits placed with them to relieve the money stringency caused by the war emergency in Europe.

The deposits are to be repaid to the Treasury in two equal installments, on the 10th and 20th of October, respectively. It is said that Secretary McAdoo, in his discretion, will re-deposit that money in banks which will use it to relieve the business and crop situation during this critical period.

The withdrawal of the government deposits from those banks is not liable to embarass them if they were carrying unusually large reserves. They can take those heavy reserves to pay back the Treasury's money. It will teach those bankers a lesson, whether they piled up their reserves because of fear or whether they were hoarding money for a higher rate of interest.

The government funds were deposited with them to relieve the crop situation by ading in moving or holding the crops, each of which at this time would afford relief during a time of stringency and fear. It was an exceedingly selfish course that prompted the banks to look out for themselves and let the producing and business interests go to the dickens.

DIRECTOR GOUVERNEUR.

The Star congratulates Mr. M. F. H. Gouverneur, of this city, upon his appointment as one of the Class C directors of the Federal Reserve bank district with Richmond as the center. The appointment of the Wilmington man came through the Federal Reserve Board, whose headquarters are at Washington.

No doubt Mr. Gouverneur was made a director at the instance of President Wilson and certainly everybody in Wilmington knows it was due recognition of Mr. Gouverneur's ability as well as of his warm friendship and yeoman support of the President's nomination and election.

Mr. Gouverneur was one of the original Wilson men of whom there were many, since there was wonderful spontaneity among Southerners in behalf of the nomination of Mr. Wilson. The Wilmington man is eminently capable and in every respect the appointment has fallen on worthy shoulders.

The appointment of Class C directors means that the new banking system will soon be inaugurated, probably as early as November 1st. Plans for opening the Federal reserve banks can now be carried out rapidly, and the whole country is confident as soon as the new system gets into operation it will greatly strengthen the financial system of the country. Then will come substantial relief of the present financial stress in this country.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Miss Susie Virginia Powell, of Jackson, Miss., organizer of a system of girls' canning clubs in the South, and the head of an organization of 2,000 girls in her home state and 25,000 girls all over the South, has introduced the system in forty states.—New Orleans States.

"The shipment recently of cattle by the thousands from Florida to the Chicago markets ought to be a great incentive to Florida people to raise more cattle," declares the Gainesville Sun. "The first shipment by the great packing house of Armour & Co., comprised 1,217 head and they arrived in Chicago in splendid condition without the loss of a single steer. A second installment went forward a couple of weeks ago and the money realized from them amounted to about $40,000." The Sun is of the opinion that cattle raising is far ahead of truck farming if the people want to make real money and lots of it.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

We have no desire to throw cold water on the cotton holding movement, but it occurs to us as being poor business for farmers in this section to be holding for 10c and allowing cotton to be shipped into the community. Unless the whole cotton territory of the South enters into the movement to hold for 10c, the sections which sell at a less price will have more money and consequently more business than the sections which hold. We understand Texas is selling cotton to Gaffney mills at a less price than our mills can buy it from local farmers. It's all right for local farmers to hold if they are in position to do so without embarrassing themselves or their creditors, but it is not all right for them to hold if they need money to meet their obligations. Mills are not going to pay local growers 10 cents for cotton when they can buy it in Texas for 8 cents or less. It is a question of supply and demand after all, and in this case it seems there is more supply than demand. We understand Gaffney mills have already sent thousands of dollars to Texas for cotton because they could not buy cotton at the same price at home. The question is whether it is better for Texas to have this money and Cherokee her cotton or for Cherokee farmers to have this money with which to pay their debts.—Gaffney (S. C.) Ledger.

The delusion that Cotton is King has been a costly one to the South. It had a great deal to do with the war for the extension of slavery. It has made great areas dependent upon a single crop. It has led to improvidence and waste on the part of the people. Worshipful submission to King Cotton has now developed in several states a desire to set up a political and economic monarch at Washington. Partly because there is an oversupply of the staple and partly on account of the war, prices are low. What is wanted at the capital is an imperial decree, either legislative or executive, which will stiffen the markets this year and limit production hereafter. There would be no such appeal to a new governmental sovereign in this case if planters could be persuaded that the old crop king to whom they are so loyal was long ago deposed by Corn. If Cotton cannot save them, why appeal to political despotism? If one crop king proves false, why not at least make the acquaintance of another? Why, in any case, undertake to set up one of the old discredited monarchs of law and privilege? Democratic in name, an important section of the Southis royalistic. Its obedience is to Cotton, abject and servile. If it could be induced to show greater favor to Corn, it would not appear at Washington in the persons of its governors and congressmen as a suppliant in behalf of a king who, although great, is often out at the elbows.—New York World.

CAROLINA BEACH.

To the Editor of The Star:

For the past 28 summers the writer has spent a good deal of his time at Carolina Beach, so named by Mr. Isaac Bates, and hopes to live to spend many more, because without frequent visits to this delightful resort, he feels as if his summer has not been well spent.

During this time not less than 50,000 people annually, which means near one million and a half people (these are modest estimates) have visited the beach and I am confident that at least four-fifths of this number would voice my sentiments in praising "dear old Carolina Beach."

Why was Carolina Beach started? People had grown old in Wilmington within hearing distance of Old Ocean's roar at Wrightsville when the wind was to the east, and had never had their feet wet in the surf, because a drive of seven miles, and a trip across the sound in a small boat made it impossible.

For a young fellow to take his best girl on a trip of this kind, with a fish supper at Stokley's or Manning's, made a $5.00 bill look like a last year's bird's nest. I've tried it. Compare this with a trip down the Cape Fear to Carolina Beach across the mainland for 25c round trip, and the question is easily answered.

There has never been a natural death on Carolina Beach. There is no record anywhere of any case of sickness that was contracted on Carolina Beach, for what can be healthier than pure sea water, clean white sand, and pitch pine forests. The sand is coarse gravel and is not blown about and banked up beside the buildings, nor blown from under the houses so as to undermine them as is the case along the coast.

There have been four casualties—one a little white boy, six years old, beat down by the surf with no one near to rescue him.

Two—a colored woman and man went beyond their depth and the three victims were picked up on the beach within six hours, showing that there are no off-setting currents.

Four, a terrific cyclone blew the old shack of pavilion down injuring several persons, none fatally.

I have heard one of the first and principal owners of Carolina Beach say that he would build a $500 or $600 cottage, let a man and his wife with two or three children occupy it for a season, and all the rent he would ask would be for them on the first of January to estimate how much drug and doctors' bill they had saved.

These statements would be sanctioned by thousands. It only means quicker and more convenient transportation to make it flourish.

AN ADMIRER OF CAROLINA BEACH AND A WELL-WISHER FOR ITS FUTURE.

"AFFAIR" AT CHAPEL HILL

By Faculty and Students of Chemical Department.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chapel Hill, Sept. 30.—In a get-together-meeting the 36 students taking chemical engineering or majoring in chemistry met with the chemistry department faculty Tuesday night. Dr. Herty, heard of the department, characterised the meeting as "marking an era in the department." In his speech he discussed the effect the war has had on the department in holding up the supply of chemicals. Half of the usual orders from Germany were not sent as the war broke out and the supply had to be augmented in various ways. It will not intefere seriously with the work this year.

The authorities feel elated at the size of the chemical engineering class this year. Thirty are registered for the course, being a gain of eight over last year, which in turn was fifty per cent larger than any other class. The demand for trained chemists is increasing rapidly as the cotton mills feel more and more the need for expert advice.

NORTHERN FIRM WILL PURCHASE TEN BALES

Fleischmann Co. Joins Local "Buy-a-Bale" Movement

Mr. J. W. Plummer, Jr., Local Representative, Instructed to Buy Cotton—Similar Action in Other Southern Cities.

Ten bales of cotton will be purchased at ten cents a pound in Wilmington by Fleischmann Co., the well known yeast manufacturers, of New York, as an earnest of their purpose to assist in lifting the heavy burden which the people of this section are forced to bear on account of the depressed price of cotton. Mr. J. W. Plummer, Jr., their local representative, received a letter to this effect yesterday and will buy the cotton at the earliest possible moment.

The letter to Mr. Plummer is from Mr. George B. Lester, first vice president of the company, who states that similar instructions have been sent to their representatives in all the more important cities of the South. This concern has representatives in Fayetteville, Charlotte, Raleigh, Greensboro, Durham and Winston-Salem. It is also represented in all the larger cities of South Carolina, Georgia and other Southern states.

The buying of ten bales of cotton in each of these cities will mean a considerable amount of money for farmers in the cotton belt.

The purchases are to be made through the presidents or chairmen of the cotton exchange or the Chambers of Commerce and will be stored in a warehouse, duly authorized to issue proper and acceptable certificates of storage. These warehouse certificates are to be forwarded to the New York office with sight draft attached, covering the amount of the purchase.

The interest shown by the big firms of the North and Northwest in the financial condition of the South and their offers to render assistance has had a most beneficial effect upon conditions generally, and has served to restore confidence in the ultimate disposition of the present cotton crop.

Many of these concerns are making large purchases of the staple at ten cents a pound, but so far the Fleischmann Company's offer to purchase ten bales of cotton is the largest order that has been received in Wilmington from an outside concern.

Following is a copy of the letter received yesterday by Mr. J. W. Plummer, Jr., representative of the Fleischmann's local office, No. 219 North Front street:

"New York, Oct. 1, 1914.

"Mr. J. W. Plummer, Jr., The Fleischmann Co., Wilmington, N. C.

"Dear Sir:—The Fleischmann Co. is at all times directly concerned in the material progress and welfare of the people of this country. Our sympathy at this immediate time is aroused because of the deplorable financial stress in which the planters and kindred interests of the South are placed, due to their inability to market their great staple crop, cotton.

"Fully realizing, as we do, how far-reaching the effect of this unfortunate condition is, and how all branches of trade throughout the South and Southwest are so nearly paralyzed because thereof, we desire to express our cordial endorsement of the measure recently adopted to relieve the distressing situation through the medium of the 'buy-a-bale of cotton' campaign.

"In furtherance of our approval of this most worthy and commendable movement, and as an earnest of our purpose to assist in lifting the heavy burden which the people of your community are now forced to bear, we herewith instruct you, as our representative in Wilmington, to purchase ten bales of cotton for the account of the Fleischmann Co. This purchase should be made by you directly through the president or chairman of the cotton exchange or Chamber of Commerce of your city, and the cotton so purchased stored in a warehouse, duly authorized to issue proper and acceptable certificates of storage. These warehouse certificates should be executed in the name of the Fleischmann Co., and forwarded to this office, with sight draft attached, covering the cost of the purchase.

"Bear in mind that, in order to accomplish the most good, that is, relief to the planter, the cotton should be bought through your local exchange officials and not through a broker. The exchange officials will aid you in handling this matter.

"Instructions similar to these set forth herein have been issued to the representatives of the Fleischmann Co. in nearly all of the more important cities located in the cotton growing and cotton distributing sections of the South, and as it is our desire to have these purchases made as nearly simultaneously as possible, you will please give this matter your immediate attention.

"Render a report promptly to this office, setting forth the manner in which the purchase of the cotton was handled, together with any further particulars pertaining thereto.

"Respectfully,
"THE FLEISCHMANN CO.
"GEO. B. LESTER,
"Vice President.

FIRST MEN'S MEETING.

First Sunday Afternoon Meeting at Y. M. C. A. Tomorrow.

The first men's mass meeting for the fall will be held at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon at 4:45 o'clock, Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, will be the speaker. Dr. McClure has during his entire pastoral career taken a great interest in young men and has been allied with the work of the association in Wilmington practically since its beginning. It is, therefore, very appropriate that he should make the address at the first meeting of a series that promise to be most helpful to the young men of the city.

A special service of song and prayer will be held prior to the address of Dr. McClure with special reference to the observance of peace Sunday which President Wilson has asked all religious bodies of America to observe tomorrow. A special musical programme has been prepared for the occasion. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Give support to the Young Men's Christian Association by signing for a membership today.

MR. GREENAMYER SAYS WILL BE VINDICATED

Requisition Held Up by Governor Locke Craig.

Pennsylvania Governor Requested the North Carolina Executive to Take No Further Action Just Yet. Awaiting Developments.

That the entire matter will be settled within a few days and that he would be completely vindicated by the outcome was the statement made last evening by Mr. Chas. E. Greenamyer, who was arrested Tuesday afternoon on telegraphic advices from Pittsburg, Pa., and who is now under $10,000 bond for his appearance before Justice Geo. Harriss Monday at noon, for a hearing to decide if he is a fugitive from justice.

Mr. Greenamyer's statement last evening followed the receipt here yesterday by Jno. D. Bellamy, Esq., counsel for Mr. Greenmyer, of a telegram from Governor Locke Craig, of North Carolina, stating that he had held up requisition for Mr. Greenamyer at the request of Governor Tener, of Pennsylvania, and that he was awaiting further advices from the Pennsylvania Governor.

According to statements made yesterday, Mr. Greenamyer and Mr. Bellamy were in conversation with Governor Tener over long distance telephone Thursday night, and it is presumed that their conversation led Governor Tener to wire Governor Craig to hold up the requisition for Mr. Greenmyer which he had previously requested.

With the exception of the statement given above, Mr. Greenamyer last evening declined to discuss the matter further, saying that he was not at liberty to make the details public just yet.

It was stated yesterday by several who are in close touch with the case that when the hearing comes up before Justice Harriss Monday, Mr. Greenamyer's attorneys will submit certain important evidence, and then move for a dismissal of the charge.

The certified record of the case against Mr. Greenamyer is now in possession of Justice Harriss, having been received by Sheriff Cowan Thursday night. The charge of larceny and embezzlement is based on a note transaction involving about $5,000, statements about which have been published by the Tidewater Power Company and the Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company in the advertisements in local papers in their fights to influence public opinion on the franchise matter now before the public.

Justice Harriss, in the following telegram, has advised Governor Craig of the case as it developed here:

"Governor Craig, Raleigh.

"Charles Greenamyer arrested as precautionary measure upon telegram from Pittsburg, Pa., alleging fugitive from justice, charge grand larceny. Upon advice I delayed commitment pending more satisfactory information through certified records, requiring heavy bond for appearance October 5th. If committed will transmit copy of proceedings to you. This explanation because requisition may be sooner asked for. If different course required please wire me.

"GEORGE HARRISS, Magistrate."

The telegram received from Governor Craig yesterday by Mr. Bellamy was as follows:

"John D. Bellamy, Wilmington.

"Wire received. Have held up requisition for C. E. Greenamyer at request of Governor of Pennsylvania. Cannot hear this matter until further advice from Governor Tener.

"LOCKE CRAIG, Governor."

Detective Schmitt, who left Pittsburg Wednesday for this city, was in Raleigh yesterday, and conferred with Governor Craig relative to the requisition for Mr. Greenamyer. It was not known here last night whether the detective would come to Wilmington, or would wait in Raleigh till Governor Craig hears further from Governor Tener relative to the requisition.

SITES FOR MARKET SHEDS

Joint Meeting of Chamber of Commerce and Council Committees Considered Matter Yesterday.

Three sites for the proposed market sheds to be used by the farmers and truckers of the county in disposing of their products in Wilmington were considered at a conference of the streets and wharves committee of the Chamber of Commerce and two members of the City Council, Messrs. Wood and Merritt, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. It was unanimously agreed that the farmers should have the sheds and the only matter discussed was as to what is the most desirable place in the city for the proposed umbrella sheds.

Those attending the conference were Messrs. W. B. Thorpe, chairman of the streets and wharves committee, who presided, W. E. Perdew, J. H. Nigget, Jr., and Councilmen Wood and Merritt. Mr. J. P. Herring, county farm demonstrator, was also present at the conference which was held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce in the new Murchison building.

Mr. Herring explained the proposition thoroughly and reported the action of City Council at its last meeting, when resolutions were adopted endorsing the idea provided a suitable place can be secured. It was also suggested by Council that Market street, on account of its greater width, is probably better adapted for the sheds than Dock street.

At a previous meeting of the streets and wharves committee of the Chamber of Commerce, Dock street was favored as the most desirable place for the sheds. At the meeting yesterday the members of the committee stated that they were willing to co-operate with Council in securing any place which should be found to be most desirable.

The three locations for the shed considered yesterday were Market street, between Front and Second; the north side of Dock street, between Water and Second; the north side of the Market house on South Front street, and one side of Dock street between Water and Front.

Councilman Merritt suggested that Councilman Wood, Mr. J. P. Herring and either a member of the streets and wharves committee or the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce be appointed a committee to canvass the business houses on the streets suggested with a view to finding out which would be the most desirable and make a report at a subsequent conference. This met with the approval of all those present and the canvass will be made at once.

Mr. W. B. Thorpe, chairman of the meeting, stated that he was in favor of Dock street. Mr. Perdew suggested that the north side of the present market house and the north side of Dock street, between Water and Front streets be used for the sheds. Mr. Herring said that the farmers had no particular choice in the matter except that they wanted the sheds. They are willing for them to be located, he said wherever it is considered most desirable.

Greet the boys with a smile and renew your membership in the Young Men's Christian Association.

SPECIAL MEETING TODAY

City Council Will Consider Request of Investigation Committee for Specific Information.

A special meeting of City Council will be held this morning at 10 o'clock for the purpose of receiving and acting upon a communication from the committee appointed some time ago to conduct an investigation into the health department. The communication, copies of which have been sent to Chairman Martin S. Willard, of the Board of Health, and Councilman W. F. Jones, one of the leaders on Council in the fight that brought about the investigation, asking for specific information on certain points in connection with the manner of making appropriations for the health department, etc.

Chairman M. S. Willard for the Board of Health, has already replied to the communication furnishing the committee the information requested.

The communication sent to Chairman Willard and Councilman Jones is as follows:

"Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 28, 1914.

"The joint committee for investigating charges against the Board of Health desires the following specific information, to be presented to the committee at a joint meeting of the Board of Health and City Council.

"First: Power of the Board of Health over appropriation in the original act creating joint authority.

"Second: When was the act amended and to what purpose?

"Third: Under original act how were budgets made up and were changes made on the volition of the board of Health without notice to the Council?

"Fourth: Have expenditures been made by the Board of Health in excess of the amount named in budgets and if so for what purpose?

"Fifth: Have receipts of the Board of Health from every source been in excess of budget appropriations? If so, how were these additional funds employed?

"When the Board of Health and City Council signify their readiness to supply this information, it will be the pleasure of the investigating committee to ask for a joint meeting of these bodies.

"J. A. TAYLOR,
"For Committee."

Chairman Martin S. Willard, of the Board of Health, stated last evening that immediately upon receipt of the communication from the committee he assembled the information requested and transmitted it to Chairman Taylor the same day. Mr. Willard said that in answering the request for information he sent the committee a copy of the original act consolidating the city and county Boards of Health, and also a copy of the amendment to the act, passed later. He also enclosed a copy of the report of Auditor Marsh, who audited the books of the Board of Health, as well as a copy of the last budget requested by the Board of Health, and the correspondence between City Council and the Board of Health relative to the budget.

Mr. Willard informed the committee, he stated, that the purpose of the amendment to the original act consolidating the boards was to take from the Board of Health the power to fix the salaries, and allow it only to make recommendations in this respect; also to change the proportions of the city and county in the expense of the Board of Health. Under the original act the city paid four-fifths and the county one-fifth; whereas, under the amendment the city contributes three-fourths and the county one-fourth.

HEALTH CODE NOW COMPLETED

Revised Regulations Governing City and County Issued in Attractive Pamphlet Form.

Constituting probably the most complete set of regulations governing health and sanitation of any county in the State, the revised health code for the city and county has been received from the printer, being issued in attractive pamphlet form.

Prepared and compiled by Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, the county health officer, and edited by Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., county solicitor, the regulations contain most of the former regulations governing health and sanitation in the city, adapted to apply to the whole county, as well as a number of new regulations passed by the Board of Health since the consolidation of the city and county boards.

The pamphlet containing the regulations is of a neat size and contains 102 pages. The code is divided into 12 chapters and 165 sections, arranged in an orderly form and completely indexed in the back of the book. By means of the index it is possible to find the regulation on any subject covered very easily, without the trouble of wading through a number of other regulations, or sections, not touching on the matter in question.

The chapters in the pamphlet are as follows: Chapter 1, Organization and Administration; Chapter 2, Nuisances and Abatements; No. 3, Privies and Cesspools, Scavenging; No. 4, Domesticated Animals; No. 5, Housing and Occupation; No. 6, Miscellaneous Provisions; No. 7, Diseases Dangerous to Health; No. 8, The Care and Protection of Food; No. 9, The Production and Handling of Milk; No. 10, Plumbing and House Drainage; No. 11, Regulations Governing Schools; No. 12, Regulations Governing County Institutions, Convict Camps, County Prison, County Home, County Jail, Care of Prisoners and Inmates.

NEW CLYDE TERMINAL IS FORMERLY OPENED

Many Visitors Entertained on Board Cherokee.

Large Crowds Inspect Big Warehouse and Handsome Steamer Yesterday Afternoon—Refreshments Served on Vessel.

Hundreds of people from the city visited the new Clyde Line terminals at the foot of Castle street yesterday afternoon from 1 to 5 o'clock and were royally entertained aboard the handsome steamer Cherokee, which was in port. The event marked the formal opening of the large warehouse, erected at a cost of approximately $125,000, and considered one of the best arranged on the South Atlantic coast.

A general invitation had been extended the public to visit the terminals and to inspect the Cherokee and they took full advantage of the opportunity. All the afternoon there was a constant stream of visitors, coming and going. It was a revelation to them to find such a well equipped warehouse and also to find that the Cherokee is so well fitted up for ocean travel.

Open house was observed on the Cherokee and all the afternoon the dining room was filled with people who partook of the delicious refreshments which had been provided, consisting of chicken salad, potato salad, ham tongue and roast beef sandwiches, sweet pickles, olives, cream cheese and salteens, fruit punch and lemonade. To Chief Steward E. E. McIntyre is due much of the credit for the tempting menu of good things to eat. This feature added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion.

As the visitors arrived they were greeted by H. G. Smalbones, the popular commercial agent of the Clyde Line, and Mr. C. J. Becker, local agent. Present also to assist in welcoming the visitors were Mr. J. S. Raymond, assistant general manager of the Clyde and Mallory lines; Mr. J. B. Denison, freight traffic manager, and Mr. G. K. Pettingill, general traveling agent, the last three being from New York.

On board the Cherokee were Capt. Grant Bunnell, master; Mr. B. O. Young, chief engineer, and the other officers of the vessel, who extended every courtesy and left nothing undone to make the visitors feel at home.

The vessel was attractively decorated for the occasion, this feature having been in charge of Mr. Will Rehder, the well known florist and decorator of this city. Fluttering from the masts were streamers of small flags, this completing the gala attire of the vessel.

It was a pleasure for many of the business men of the city to greet the officials of the company, who came down for the formal opening and to congratulate them on the handsome terminals which have been erected. This was the first time that these officials had visited Wilmington since the terminal was completed and it has been a great pleasure to them to learn of the cordial manner in which the citizens here have expressed their interest in the structure, which is a credit to the city as well as to this entire section.

The warehouse and terminals were constructed by the W. P. Richardson Co., of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mr. Raymond yesterday wrote them a letter complimenting them upon the splendid work that they have done. In the letter he also spoke in the highest terms of Mr. Walter Clark, superintendent for the company, under whose direct charge the erection of the building has been since it was begun.

Besides Captain Bunnell and Chief Engineer Young the other officers of the Cherokee who assisted in entertaining the visitors were First Officer Carleton; Second Officer Heath; Third Officer Gerhard; First Assistant Engineer Tinnebann; Second Assistant Engineer Smith and Third Assistant Engineer Miller. The Cherokee carries a crew of 34 men. She has four decks, the two lower decks being used for the carrying of freight. On the third deck are apartments with a capacity of 80 passengers. The vessel is 264 feet in length and has a tonnage of 2,556.

The vessel was built by the Cramp shipyards in Philadelphia, in 1886, being the first Clyde Line vessel ever to be built. She is the first ocean going vessel ever to go up the St. John's river to Jacksonville, Fla.

The motive power is furnished by a triple expansion engine of 1,300 horse power. Her average speed is 12 1-2 knots an hour. The vessel is fully equipped with life boats which can be lowered and put to sea within two minutes. The vessel carries wireless and all other modern conveniences.

The new warehouse, which was the object of much admiration yesterday, extends the entire length of a city block from Castle street to Queen and is 130 feet in width. The building cost $75,000 and the site which includes the entire block, cost $50,000. There is plenty of room for expansion whenever the need arises and the Clyde Line is now prepared to take care of its needs in Wilmington for years to come.

The present wharf facilities are sufficient to allow two large vessels, the size of the Cherokee, to dock at one time. It is interesting to note that piles have been driven at either end of the warehouse for a distance of ten feet so that when a large vessel docks, her weight, instead of striking the wharf strikes this piling. This absorbs the impact and thus insures the safety of the foundation of the warehouse. By anchoring the vessel at a distance loading is also made easier.

The full force of stevedores were busy yesterday afternoon loading a cargo of cotton, lumber and other freight which will be carried to New York this afternoon. The visitors thus had an opportunity to learn just how a big vessel like the Cherokee is loaded. This was not the least interesting feature for many.

NORTHEAST GALE TODAY.

Storm Warning Hoisted Last Evening at 9:30 O'clock.

A moderate northeast gale is predicted off this coast today by the United States weather bureau. Northeast storm warnings were hoisted last evening from Fort Monroe to Savannah. A moderate disturbance was reported over northeast Florida, and moving northeast, with increasing developments likely.

The disturbance made itself felt here yesterday, the skies being overcast all day. The wind was from the northeast, though not strong. A light rainfall occurred during the early part of the night.

In our business shows that still more people are opening accounts with us. We are daily adding new names to our already long list of depositors. There is a good reason for this. FALL Y. W. C. A. RALLY HELD LAST EVENING

The fall rally of the Y. W. C. A. at the home of the association, No. 114 North Fourth street ,last evening from 8 to 11 o'clock was a most enjoyable occasion. Many visitors called during the evening and met Miss Anna Troutt, the new secretary, who arrived this week and has assumed her new duties. She assisted the officers and directors of the association in receiving and entertaining the guests.

A delightful programme of music was rendered by Miss Pauline Crumb and Miss Anna Telford, violinists, with Miss Katie Foard as accompanist. This was one of the most enjoyable features of the evening. The musicians were obliged to respond to encores again and again. They are true artists and were at their best last night.

It was a real pleasure for the visitors to inspect the building, which in its every feature is marked by that homelike spirit that is so desirable in a place of this kind. Many were the expressions of delight that Wilmington at last has a place where its young ladies can find rest and recration under such ideal conditions.

The home was charmingly and appropriately decorated for the occasion with fall flowers. One of the features of interest to many was a display of basketry work which was done by Miss Louise W. Harlow. The baskets were made from the needles of the long leaf pine which were obtained in the vicinity of Wilmington. Miss Harlow will give a course in basketry for the members of the association this winter.

As the guests arrived they registered their names. The young ladies who desired to enroll in one or more of the classes which will soon be organized were asked to state which courses they expected to take.

ENTERTAINMENTS IN HONOR WILMINGTON YOUNG LADY

Miss Katherine Mintz, a popular Wilmington young lady, has been visiting in Jacksonville, Fla., for the last ten days and was the honoree at several delightful social affairs. The following is from the Thursday's Jacksonville Florida Times-Union:

"Mrs. A. B. Floyd was hostess at a delightful afternoon reception yesterday, at her home in Springfield, complimenting two very attractive visitors, Miss Mamie Floyd, of Darlington, S. C., and Miss Katherine Mintz, of Wilmington, N. C., the former the sister of Mr. Floyd and Mrs. R. J. Rivenbach, and the latter the guest for the past week of Mrs. Mamie Webster.

"About twenty called to meet the honorees between the hours of 3 and 4:30 o'clock, after which the bevy of charming guests assisted Mrs. Floyd in caring for about twenty-five little misses and masters invited to the celebration of the fifth anniversary of the birthday of Master Webster Floyd, the handsome little son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd, and the namesake of Mrs. Mamie Webster.

"The pretty home was artistically decorated in a color scheme of red, green and white, which was carried out in the beautifully appointed dining room, to which the guests repaired at 5:30. Resting on a beautiful centerpiece was an immense birthday cake, contaning the five candles lighted. Master Floyd extinguished the candles one by one, and in a most composed manner asked a blessing.

"The happy occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by all present."

The following is also from the same issue of the Times-Union:

"Mr. E. L. Warner was the host at a dinner party at the Hotel Mason last night, a farewell courtesy to Miss Katherine Mintz, of Wilmington, N. C., who has been the much admired and popular guest of her brother, Mr. H. C. Mintz, for the past ten days.

"Covers were laid for six and the decorations of pink roses were presented to the prety honoree on her departure. The occasion was a thoroughly delightful one and a fitting finale to the many beautiful affairs that were given in honor of a pretty visitor."

BLUES ARE STILL LEADING

Reds Promise to Make Decided Gain in Y. M. C .A. Contest Today—Both Teams Confident.

Neither the Reds nor the Blues did any great amount of work yesterday in the Y. M. C. A. membership campaign in the way of turning in points, the former only reporting an even hundred while the latter maintained their lead, obtained the day previous, by bringing in 103 points. The Blues in the Boys' division have brought in a total number of 318 points while the Reds have only 215. The standing of the two teams including the work of the boys gives the Blues 751 points and the Reds 618 1-2.

It is confidently predicted by members of both teams that today is going to be the big day of the contest. The first of the month is past, money paid for salaries has been banked, and it is now up to the young men of the city to pay their dues for the next six months if they are already members of the associatoin, and to become one, if they have not joined.

The Wilmington Y. M. C. A. is appropriately called the house of opportunity and its work during the past year has entitled it to that claim. In the way of religious opportunities it offers the fellowship of the Sunday afternoon meetings, Bible classes, special lectures and the chance to do extension work for those who want to be of some service to their fellowman.

If offers to many the opportunity to occupy rooms where good fellowship, good influences and every convenience makes clean manly living possible. Its social life is of the best. The mingling of kindred spirits whose chief object is upright living is indeed uplifting. There is the glee club, the debating club and other social features that make living here pleasant and enjoyable.

The association this year will undertake educational work for which a minimum charge will be made. This will include instruction in the elementary subjects, commercial courses, and technical courses in elementary mechanical and architectural drawing. Then there is the gymnasium and this to many is alone worth the charge made for membership.

All these features and many others are described in detail in a handsomely printed booklet which is being distributed.

Between 30 and 40 members of the different teams were at the supper at 6:15 o'clock last evening. While the reports were not encouraging, the northeast wind was blowing and overhanging clouds made the world look somewhat dreary, there was a spirit of fellowship manifested that would be a sufficient reason for every man to become a member of the association who can possibly do so.

There will be no supper tonight, but the teams will make their reports at 9 o'clock and refreshments will be served in the lobby. A large attendance is expected and everyone is assured of an enjoyable time.

Independent Club Meets.

An important meeting of the social feature members of the Independent Club was held in the room of the club Friday night. A committee of five was appointed to revise the membership list and make a report at a meeting on Tuesday night. Mr. J. L. Clemmons, president, presided, and Louis Goodman, Esq., acted as secretary in the absence of the secretary, Mr. Joseph A. Price.

The Young Men's Christian Association can serve two thousand men. Sign a membership today.

CRIMINAL VIOLENCE CAUSE

Corner's Jury Returns Verdict in Moore Mystery Case—At Hands of Unknown Party.

That T. L. Moore, of Burgaw whose body was found floating in Smith's Creek last Sunday morning, came to his death by riminal violence at the hands of party or parties unknown to the jurors was the verdict returned yesterday morning by the coroner's jury which has been investigating the tragedy. The verdict was returned at the end of a short session, when two more witnesses were examined. Their testimony corroborated evidence heretofore submited, but shed no new light on the mystery surrounding Mr. Moore's death.

Henry Brown, a colored barber, testified before the jury yesterday that Mr. Moore came into his place on the morning of Tuesday, September 22nd. for a shave, and that he had considerable money at the time. Witness saw a purse with a number of large denominations, but did not know what the total amount was. Evidence introduced earlier in the investigation was to the effect that Mr. Brown had about $32 on his person when he left his home at Burgaw on the night of Monday, September 21st. When his body was discovered no purse or money was found on it.

Evelyn Goldman, a white woman, corroborated the testimony of Mr. W. A. Davis, who last saw Mr. Moore alive, relative to his calling at her house and asking if he could arrange for Mr. Moore, who was intoxicated, to spend the night there. She said that Mr. Davis came to her house and asked her if he could arrange for a room for a friend, stating that his friend was somewhat under the influence of whiskey, and that he did not want to bring him back downtown that night. She told him she had a spare room he could use, and accompanied Mr. Davis back to the bank of Smith's creek, where he left Mr. Moore. Mr. Davis failed to find Mr. Moore, and made a careful search, but could not locate him. Her testimony corroborated Mr. Davis in practically all the details.

There being no other witnesses for the jury to examine, the body took the evidence submitted under consideration and returned a verdict as outlined above.

It is said that further investigation of the death of Mr. Moore will be made by private officers, engaged by his relatives, and that the next grand jury will be requested to look into the matter.

LOCAL DOTS

—The condition of Dolan Alther, who was badly cut in an affray with George Daniels early Friday morning, was reported to be very favorable last night. He is at the James Walker Memorial Hospital.

—Suit was started in Superior Court yesterday by W. C. Flournoy against the Murchison National Bank and the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company. J. O. Carr, Esq., represents the plaintiff, who sues in froma pauperis. The complaint has not been filed.

—Mr. J. W. Croom, an electrician for the Tidewater Power Company, was knocked down and painfully bruised yesterday afternoon on Third street, near Princess, by several children, who were skating on roller skates. His arms were skinned about the elbow and he suffered a considerable shock from the impact with the pavement. Dr. T. M. Green rendered the necessary surgical aid after which he went to his home at No. 1104 Market street.

THEATRICAL

Again today, Wilmington's largest and most popular movie theatre comes to the week-end with an offering that stands away above everything, after a week that has surpassed all records of the past in value given in up-to-date motion pictures—the newest ever shown in Wilmington at any price. Exclusive exhibitors of the now famous "Universal Program," as well as the "Mutual Program," those new movies which "make time fly," the Bijou is enabled to present something every day just a little bit better than anything else available, and do so at the regular, small price that has prevailed always in Wilmington.

Heading today's bill is a mammoth two-reel Reliance "Mutual" movie drama, "The Gunman," a dramatic production that has created a sensation wherever shown. For pure thrilling and quick action, this picture has never been beaten, and it is thoroughly interesting in every flash. It features such Mutual screen stars as Mirian Cooper, one of the most beautiful of all leading ladies, with DeGrasse and Eugene Pallette.

Coming next is a great Victor sea drama, "The Girl and the Smuggler" a dramatic feature that will undoubtedly make a strong appeal to everyone. For the leading roles are in such capable hands as Irene Wallace, Alex Shannon and Charles Hutchinson, not to mention Walter Miller, another star who appears in the cast.

Then there's a big Nestor comedy, "A Troublesome Wink" featuring that popular pair of movie stars, Victoria Forde and Eddie Lyons.

Week-end at Grand.

Passing for a day from the wonderful stupendous Paramount Pictures, that have caused the folks of Wilmington to go to talking, the Grand will today offer a great bill for all week-enders. The price will be back to 5 cents, too, afternoon and night, and every one who wants to behold a great show should not go shy on this superb offering, at the people's favorite amusement spot. The Paramount Pictures scheduled for next week are brilliant successes, leading on Monday and Tuesday with Jack London's great dramatic success, "An Odyssey of the North" and followed Thursday and Friday by famed Dustin Farnum in "The Virginian." In between (Wednesday) the Grand will inaugurate presentation of the great serial film. "The Million Dollar Mystery," the greatest of all film sensations.

Today's great 5 cent show will be led by a 2-reeler, because there is ever something special about the Grand's show. It is "The Biltmore Diamond." It is a wonderful dectective story, just such as will grip you from start to finish. Next will come the Vitagraph's remarkable success, "The Horse Thief," and its a thriller with such noted people as Margaret Gibson and Alfred D. Vosburg in the cast.

There are two awfully funny films on today in "The Mix-up at Murphy's" and "Curing Mr. Goodheart." The former is a rousing comedy.

Today's Big Victoria Show.

The Victoria Theatre will climax a great week today with a great show, representing the cream of the Keith Vaudeville, and that means the very best, the most wholesome and the rarest. The show that will be offered three times today-matinee this afternoon and at two performances tonight—is a superb one. It sparkles with what is most charming and cleverest in swell vaudeville, lead by the well known Piero Pelletier Company, this season being seen in a tabloid dramatic production, "The 10-40 West," which has created quite a stir on the big time. Miller, DeVay and Prince, in a rousingly mirthful and most daring acrobatic act, in which the champion acrobatic canine of the world makes his appearance, are also winners on the present show. Wallace Galvin, the noted magician, is also a strong card and is mystifying and causing lots of laughter. Yet another star of the present show is Mabel Johnson, who introduces her wooden-head friend in an exceptionally clever and out of the ordinary ventriloquist act. Two big new reels of moving pictures—feature pictures, too—will also be on today's menu, and the Victoria's superb orchestra will play as never before. The show is one that will particularly please the ladies and children and they should not miss the matinee this afternoon.

"The Dingbat Family."

We will have to assume, for so the best theatrical writers tell us, that the tremendous success of "The Dingbat Family," the famous subjects adapted to the musical comedy stage by Frank Stammers is due more than anything else to the real, red-blooded fidelity to characters and incidents of everyday life portrayed comically and sometimes satirically, as the theatregoers want them. The "family upstairs" is a subject that enters most vitally into the daily lives of probably four-fifths of the entire population of our country and is beyond question the source of as much discussion as all other home topics. Furthermore, it is the one topic upon which there is universal agreement—the "family upstairs" is the cause of it all. The troubles of Dingbat and his wife, "the Duchess" with the "family upstairs" may be a trifle exaggerated but they are nevertheless homely troubles and combined with the delightful music and the gorgeous display of femininity should, as a musical comedy, prove a potent attraction at the Academy of Music Saturday, matinee and night. Seats now selling at Woodall & Shepard.

WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW

Apparently Little Progress Made During Week Towards Re-Opening Cotton Exchange.

New York, Oct. 2.—Apparently little progress has been made during the week towards reopening the cotton exchange. announcement was made on Thursday that no further ballots would be held in Liverpool straddle account until October 8.

Various rumors concerning the progress of the syndicate plan for taking over the long interests here and thus making possible are opening of the exchange failed to make materialize. In tthe absence, however, of any official announcement and the fact that a commitee is still working on this proposition many hoped that it would prove to be the solution of the problem which has kept the market closed for over two months.

The board of managers is still wrestling with the Knotty provisions in the Lever bill, which must be settled before any business can be resumed here, as it is generally understood that only new style contracts will be traded in when the exchange opens.

The Census Bureau's report on ginning to September 25, was a big surprise to the trade in view of the alleged general holding movement and bad weather east of the river as it showed 135,208 bales increase over last year and only about 300,000 bales under the record crop of 1911.

The government condition report of 73.5 was under some of the recent private reports and compared with 78 last month, but nevertheless, in big acreage planted suggested a yield of 15,300,000 bales, excluding linters, which would almost if not quite equal the record-breaking crop of 1911-12.

World's Consumption of Cotton.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The world's consumption of cotton was 21,223,000 bales during the year which ended August 31, the census bureau announced today. Production of commercial cotton, exclusive of linters, grown in 1913, as compiled from public and re-reports, documents and correspondence was approximately 22,255,000 bales of 500 pounds net.

Except for the United States cotton included in consumption figures refers almost exclusively to that used in spinning and does not include large quantities used in the manufacture of felts, bats and other articles. The number of cotton spindles active during the year was 143,397,000. Approximately 30,360,000 were operated in the United States.

REPORTS AND THE EXCHANGE.

New York, Oct. 2.—Two government reports supplied the features on the cotton exchange today.

The census ginning figures appeared showing 3,381,863 baesl ginned to Sept. 24, or 135,208 bales more than a year ago, and within 300,000 bales of the big 1911 crop. In view of the reported big holding movement and the wet weather in September these figures appeared surprisingly large to the trade here.

The crop report made condition 73.5 against 78 last month and a ten year average of 68.5. On the big acreage planted it suggested a yield of 15,300,000 bales, excluding linters, which closely approximates the record crop of 1911-12.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

New Orleans, Oct. 2.—Although the day's government reports on condition and ginning of cotton were considered bearish, spot values held steady, the local market holding unchanged at 8 11-16 for middling, while one or two centers in the interior reported small advances. Trading in futures was at a somewhate lower level.

While ginning returns were much larger than expected, the movement into sight for the week was moderate and exports were large, considering the general commercial situation.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE LOWER

Result of Purchases of Bills on London by The Hundred Million Pool and Other Factors.

New York, Oct. 2.—Purchases of bills on London by the $100,000,000 gold pool and demand from independent sources resulted in another decline in foreign exchange today, cables falling to 496 1-2 and sight drafts to 495 1-2.

Trading in these remittances was again fairly extensive, as the result of the week's heavy grain and cotton exports. Grain shipments were some 2,600,000 bushels larger than in the preceding week and about 3,200,000 bushels in excess of the same week of 1913.

The inquiry for bonds, particularly those maturing within the next few years, was somewhat broader at concessions which placed most of them on a six per cent. basis.

There were wide estimates regarding the weekly movement of cash, forecasts a gain by local institutions of from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000. Further contraction of loans is expected with a concurrent reduction of the deginit in cash reserves.

Announcement by a subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation of its intention to cancel the existing wage agreement at the beginning of the coming year revived rumors of a general wage reduction in this and allied industries. Unfilled tonnage of the steel corporation for September probably will show a shrinkage of 250,000 tons.

Banks at this center are preparing to renew cotton loans maturing between the tenth and fifteenth of the month.

Banks clearings continue to record pronounced contraction, the total at leading cities of the country showing a decrease of over 32 per cent. compared with the same week last year. The only exception is in the middle west where the abnormal activity in grains has resulted in an increase of exchanges.

COTTON SEED OIL MARKET.

GINNING RECORD SECOND TO 1911

Aggregate of 3,381,863 Bales Ginned to September 25

4,000 BELOW RECORD

In Five States the Ginnings to September 25 Exceeded Those to the Same Date for Any of Past Seven Years.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Cotton ginning was active from September 1 to 25, a total of 2,901,556 bales having been turned out. That brought the aggregate ginnings for the year to 3,381,863 bales, according to the census bureau's second report, announced today. The period's ginnings were second only to those of the record crop year of 1911, being less than 4,000 bales lower.

In Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia and Louisiana the ginnings to September 25 exceeded those to that date in any of the past seven years.

Sea Island cotton ginnings exceeded those of any year in the past seven, while the number of round bales ginned showed a great decrease.

The second cotton ginning report of the season, compiled from reports of Census Bureau correspondents and agents throughout the cotton belt and issued at 10 A. M. today, announced that 3,381,863 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, of the growth of 1914, had been ginned prior to September 25. This compares with 3,246,655 bales, or 23.2 per cent of the entire crop, ginned prior to September 25 last year; 3,007,271 bales or 22.3 per cent in 1913, and 3,676,594 bales, or 23.6 per cent in 1911.

Ginnings prior to September 25, by States, with comparisons for the past three years and the percentage of the entire crop ginned in those states prior to that date in the same year, follow:

BISHOP OF DIOCESE ELECTED NEXT WEEK

Meeting in Goldsboro Opens Next Wednesday

Several Prominent Clergymen Mentioned—Boy and Dogs in Swamp—Onslow County Man Has Two Interesting Felines.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 2.—Several well-known clergymen are being talked as possible successors to the late Bishop Strange, of the Diocese of East Carolina. One of the quartette, it is thought, will be selected by the diocesan council when it meets in Washington Wednesday to choose a new bishop.

The eligibles receiving more consideration possibly than any others are Dr. John Harding, of New York; Rev. E. A. Darst, of Richmond; Rev. Isaac Hughes, of Henderson, and Dr. Coupland, of New Orleans. Dr. Harding and Rev. Mr. Hughes are both natives of Chocowinity, in the diocese, the former being a son of the late Rev. Israel Harding at one time rector of St. Mary's church here, and the latter a relative of Rev. Nathaniel Harding, of St. Peter's, Washington, the church in which the council will meet. The council will convene at 11 A. M. Wednesday, and preceding the business session a memorial sermon to the late bishop will be preached by Rev. W. E. Cox, of Wilmington, and then the communion will be celebrated.

Somewhere in the woods of Jones county is a black boy with two hounds, and the trio are piling up more telephone tolls and other expenses than any other darkey with two dogs to be found anywhere. A man named Miller in Goldsboro owns the hounds, and the chief of police in Kinston has undertaken to find them for him. Miller claims that the canines are valuable. At any rate he has offered a reward for them or the thief, who is about 17 years of age, and has gone to considerable other expenses to locate them. Through processes all his own, the chief, playing detective, learned today that the boy and the dogs, the latter ecstatic in the companionship of their new proprietor, had walked 26 miles from Goldsboro to Kinston, and 40 odd miles farther into Jones county, and had stopped en route to rob a farm house of $1 in cash, some clothes and a shotgun. Probably the trio have gone a hunting, since a backwoods store reports selling shells to a colored youth accompanied by two ultra-affectionate dogs.

Buck King, of Trent township, Lenoir county, lives in a real Brobdingnag. King today brought to Kinston a tobacco leaf, of fair grade, which measures 24 inches wide by three full feet in length. These is some more nearly as large on his farm, and on the surrounding plantations. The plant from which the specimen leaf came was set out on June 16. King also exhibited 13 locks of cotton from one stalk, three in excess of the usual number. One of the two bolls contained eight locks.

Stephen Jones, an Onslow county man, has two cats that he declares will make splendid campaign exhibits. One of the felines is marked with a perfect yellow "S" its white back. The S, he contends, must be intended for "Simmons," and he is contemplating sending the cat to the senior Senator at Washington. Its brother is lacking in unusual markings, however, in fact, is of a dingy black color without a degree of variation. The black cat filches the other's food at every opportunity, and is of such had habits in general that Jones is satisfied it is "a Republican cat."

GOVERNOR RETURNS FROM VIRGINIA FAIR

Delegates Named to Farmers' National Congress

Instruction Comes to Hold Up on Requisition for Mr. Chas. E. Greenamyer, of Wilmington—Other Raleigh Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 2.—Governor Craig, just back from Chase City, Va., where he opened the Mecklenburg county fair yesterday, declares that he was especially pleased with the reception and the entertainment he and his staff received and with the great throng of good Virginia folks who were there and the very creditable proportions of the fair.

The Governor was especially pleased with the fine stock that he saw and says the fair is making a splendid showing in every respect. The attentions and courtesies accorded the North Carolina party, the Governor declares, sustained to the fullest extent the splendid reputation of Virginia for hospitality. The Governor will be in the executive offices now until next Tuesday when he goes to Durham to open the Durham county fair which gives promise of splendid success.

Delegates on the part of North Carolina to the Farmers' National Congress to be held at Fort Worth, Texas, October 14-17, were named today by Governor Craig as follows: Col. J. Bryan Grimes, Raleigh; J. W. Faison, Faison; R. L. Woodard, Pamlico; Col. Benehan Cameron, Stagville; C. M. Townsend, Rowland; W. S. Pharr, Charlotte; J. R. Self, Lincolnton; A. C. Shuford, Newton; W. J. Cocke, Asheville.

Instructions came today to Governor Craig from the Governor of Pennsylvania for the honoring of the requisition from the Pennsylvania chief executive on the Governor of North Carolina for Charles E. Greenamyer, of Wilmington, alleged to be wanted in Pittsburg, Pa., on the charge of larceny and embezzlement, to be held up for the present. It is not known here what turn has been taken in the case to bring about this action. Mr. Greenamyer, who is general manager of the Wilmington Beach Corporation and Fidelity Trust & Development Co., Wilmington, was placed under arrest there Tuesday and gave $10,000 bond for his appearance before Justice George Harriss on Monday, October 5th, under the fugitive from justice act, this action having been taken by the Wilmington authorities on the strength of telegraphic instructions from the Pittsburg district attorney.

You carry insurance on your life and on your property. What insurance have you on your business records? Safes are ineffectual; antiquated. They take up valuable space and consume time in operation. Many of them are not fireproof and half a burglar can open them. What you need is protection BUILT IN the building where your offices are located. Protection against fire is BUILT IN the new Murchison Bank Building. Every tenant of this building has burglary protection identical to the biggest banks in the country. A watchman clock system is operated which compels the watchman to pass each office at scheduled intervals. This is real protection. Your records are SAFE from fire and burglars. Fireproof building. Individual office watchman service. These are only two reasons why your business should be located in the new Murchison Building. Every possible advantage for $12.00 a month and up.
